

Please don't require the residents of the State of Indiana to adopt standards concerning phone privacy that are less stringent than the standards we determined were appropriate.